

Home School Program

Offered during public school hours. Introductory and intermediate courses focusing on providing physical education for the home schooled child. Classes are structured to include warm-up, agility play, review, skill lesson and fencing with equipment.

